

The Queenslander Pictorial.

Landing stores for Pastoral Stations along the Roper River.

ON THE ROPER RIVER N.T.

See "Sullivan"

Landing stores at the Roper River Station.

A happy family.

The Home Guard, Roper's Lager Station.

All that remains of the "Young Australia" wrecked many years ago in the Roper River.

Some Roper River boys, showing Tribal marks.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE ADAMANTINE BISHOP.—THE COFFIN BEING BORN FROM ST. STEPHEN'S CATHEDRAL TO THE DECEASED.

—Blue photo.

THE FUNERAL PROCESSION LEAVING ST. STEPHEN'S CATHEDRAL AFTER THE BISHOP'S BARRAGE OF THE BISHOP'S.

—Blue photo.

ST. STEPHEN'S CATHEDRAL FUNERAL PLACE OF ADAM BISHOP'S BARRAGE AND BISHOP'S BARRAGE.

Note: visible the Cathedral during the Bishop's Mass.

REV. CHARLES AMBROSE DUNN.
Who presided the late Rev. Dunn as head of the Catholic Church in Montreal.
—L. S. White photo.

REV. LOUIS MARIE EMMANUEL DE BONN.
Bishop of the Diocese of Montreal, whose body was buried in Montreal.
—L. S. White photo.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE REV. CHARLES AMBROSE DUNN.
The funeral procession passing from the cathedral into the street on the corner of St. Charles's Cathedral.
—L. S. White photo.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS ON THE CAVALRY. N

THE BRITISH ADVANCE
IN THE WEST.

A few of our "empties"

(Official photograph issued by the Press Bureau)

QUEENSLAND SOLDIERS IN EGYPT.

An Australian Light Horse (Queensland) Camp at Matruh.

Photo kindly sent by Mr. T. G. Ryan.

MEXICAN BORDER.

A Yuma Camp of the First National Guard, at McAllen, Texas.

Photo kindly sent by Mr. T. G. Ryan.

IN WILDEST AUSTRALIA

Natives of Papua New Guinea (Australia)
ready for a warlike dance.
This whole
series of 13 photos
who took the photography.

THE LERMONT FLOOD.

The flood water
making slow
downward drift.

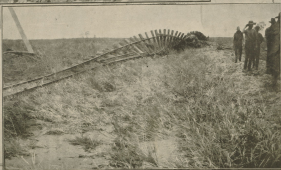

Photo by
the photographer

View across the river at the site
of the bridge, which
has completely
disappeared, as
well as the buildings
and other structures
in the vicinity.

How the flood water twisted
the railway
track between Capitol and Lermont.

THE AFTERMATH OF THE CLERMONT FLOOD.

A Survey of Damage to Town and Railway.

A house that escaped,
surrounded by debris.

Sandy creek after
the flood subsided.

A churchy form left in a tree by the flood.

What was once a
railway track.

Restoring railway communication.

Straightening up
the line.

Photos by P.C. de Crepigny

LIBRARY
JAN 27 1907

DAIRYING AND SUGAR AT POMONA, NORTH COAST LINE.

—(Illustrated, page, photo.)

MAJOR J. FRANK MEARBY
One of best Queensland officers of the A.I.F. Staff who was decorated at the beginning of the war, and was the Officer of the D.S.O.

CAPTAIN THOMAS J. MACPHERSON
Who has received the Military Medal for bravery at France. He is a son of Mr. E. L. Macpherson, of Town Hill, Brisbane.

MRS. LAURA MEARBY, D.S.O.
Who received the Military Cross for distinguished service, and who was afterwards, while in France, the wife of Major Mearby, one of the best of the A.I.F. Officers. Mrs. Mearby is a devoted mother who, with her own hands, has made the most of the things that she has. She was an ex-superintendent of the Red Cross Society.

CAPTAIN ROBERT H. W. BROWN
Who has received the Military Medal. He was a chaplain in the A.I.F. very long time. He was an ex-superintendent of the Red Cross Society.

CLEARED LAND ON CAPTAIN MEARBY'S FARM

DAIRY CATTLE, CAPTAIN BROWN'S

RED CROSS COLLECTION OF NURSING SISTER
(Mrs. Macpherson, Brisbane)

CUTTING BY WORK IN A POMONA COUNTRY